

Christmas Day Death Investigation – Flowery Branch, GA

December 26, 2013

Mark Alan Fyfe, Age 52, of Flowery Branch, GA has been charged with the Murder of his brother, Alan Scott Fyfe, Age 54, following an early morning shooting in the 6400 block of River Hill Drive in Flowery Branch, Georgia. Fyfe was also charged with three counts of Obstructing an Officer (Felony) and one count of Interfering with Government Property.

On December 25, 2013, Christmas Day, Hall county Deputies responded to the residence where the 911 call originated, a male subject, later identified as Mark Fyfe, told deputies that another male inside the residence made the call. The other male was later identified as Fyfe's son, Kevin Fyfe, Age 21. After he was interviewed, Kevin Fyfe was released with no charges.

After Mr. Fyfe closed the door and refused to allow deputies inside the residence, deputies searched outside the residence and located a male subject, later identified as Alan Scott Fyfe, lying in the backyard having sustained what appeared to be a gunshot wound.

The Hall County SWAT team was called. After negotiating with Mr. Fyfe, he and his son, Kevin, came out of the residence without incident. No one else was injured. The victim was transported to the Northeast Georgia Medical Center where he was pronounced dead.

Mark Fyfe is being held in the Hall County Jail where he remains without bond. The incident remains under investigation by the Hall County Sheriff's Office, Criminal Investigations Division.
