

Gainesville Man Arrested on Enticement Charges

September 25, 2013

On September 24, 2013, Sheriff's Investigators working an undercover operation came into contact with 21 year-old Conner Reid Johnson, of Gainesville. Mr. Johnson arranged, via an advertisement on Craigslist, to meet with what he believed to be an underage female for the purpose of having a sexual relationship.

A meeting place was agreed upon and when Johnson arrived he was arrested without incident.

Johnson was booked into the Hall County Jail, charged with one count of Enticing a Child for Indecent Purposes. He is scheduled for first appearance later this morning.
