

North Hall Assault Investigation

July 31, 2013

On July 31, 2013 just after 9:00 AM, Sheriff's Deputies and Investigators responded to a residence in the 5700 block of Avalon Commons Way, in Clermont, regarding a report of an assault. Upon arrival, Deputies discovered that a female victim had sustained a stab wound to her abdomen.

The victim reported that she was confronted by an unknown male at her home, who then assaulted her before taking unknown items and fleeing the scene.

The victim was transported to Northeast Georgia Medical Center with injuries that did not appear to be life threatening. Her present condition is not known.

No further suspect or vehicle information is available at this time. This case remains under investigation by the Hall County Sheriff's Office, Criminal Investigations Division.
