

Hall County Teacher Charged with Public Indecency

May 29, 2013

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of a Hall County school teacher as a result of an investigation into an incident at Johnson High School.

The investigation revealed that on Friday, May 24, 2013, a female teacher approached school officials with a report that a male co-worker had exposed himself to her in a classroom. School officials then notified the school resource officer, who immediately began an investigation into the matter.

On May 28th, an arrest warrant was issued for 47 year-old Tony Ray Wilson, of Buford, for the charge of Public Indecency (misdemeanor). As of the time of this release, Mr. Wilson is not in custody.

This case remains under investigation by the Hall County Sheriff's Office, School Resources Division.
