

6th Annual Academy Cup To Take Place At Allen Creek Soccer Complex

May 7, 2012

It's time for one of the most highly anticipated weekends of the 2012 spring soccer season! Georgia Soccer & Allen Creek Soccer Complex will be hosting the 6th annual Academy Cup, May 12-13, at the Allen Creek Soccer Complex in Gainesville / Hall County, Georgia.

Approximately 152 boys and girls Academy teams, ages 10, 11 and 12, will compete in over 240 matches this Saturday and Sunday. Over 5000 players, coaches, referees and spectators from throughout Georgia are expected to be in attendance.

These age groups are both fun and exciting to watch with competitive games, lots of action and outstanding demonstrations of skill in every match. Games begin at 8:00 am with the last games on Saturday starting at 6:00 pm. Championship rounds are played Sunday afternoon starting at 1:00 pm.

Everyone is invited to come watch the best up-and-coming soccer players in Georgia. Bring your family and let your kids enjoy playing in the inflatable slides and jumpers at the Allen Creek Soccer Complex. The Academy Cup only comes once a year- you don't want to miss it!

Complete information can be found at www.gaacademycup.com.