October 9, 2012

GAINESVILLE - The Georgia Department of Community Affairs recently announced that it has selected Hall County Government as a 2012 Community Development Block Grant recipient. Hall County will receive a $500,000 grant to assist in building transitional housing for domestic violence victims in the community.

The award was celebrated by community leaders Tuesday morning at the 8th Annual Domestic Violence Breakfast and Briefing at the Gainesville Public Safety Building.

Gateway Domestic Violence Center began an effort to raise funds for transitional housing approximately two years ago. The agency has already developed community partnerships with the Gainesville Kiwanis Club, the Junior League of Gainesville Hall County, Habitat for Humanity Hall County, local churches and a number of other organizations to raise the funds that will be necessary to complete the project.
