

Hall County Chief Appraiser Named to State Committee

December 7, 2012

Hall County Chief Appraiser Steve Watson has been appointed to serve on the Georgia Association of Assessing Officials Education Steering Committee.

The Education Committee addresses the education needs of assessors and appraisers in the state of Georgia. It determines topics of current interest, develops and presents one-day seminars sponsored by GAAO. This committee prepares a written annual report that is presented to the Education Steering Committee to offer input into the Georgia Certification Program sponsored by the Georgia Department of Revenue.
