

Oakwood Occasions Opens for Business In Hall County Government Center

November 5, 2012

Oakwood Occasions opened in the cafeteria on the fourth floor of the Hall County Government Center Monday morning and will be serving breakfast and lunch Mondays through Fridays.

Danella Burnett, owner of Oakwood Occasions, said the cafe will be open between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. to Hall County employees and the public.

Oakwood Occasions cafe serves as an intern site for students enrolled in Hall County Schools 'Project Success,' a program focused on implementing employability and daily living skills to students with certain challenges. One student from Lanier Charter Career Academy's Hospitality program is also serving as an intern in the cafe.

A daily menu will be available on the first floor of the Hall County Government Center.
