RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the State Legislature of Georgia has established via O.C.G.A., Chapter 21, Article 8, Sections 15-21-130 through 15-21-134, funding for local victim witness assistance programs for the citizens of Hall County; and

WHEREAS, Hall County has imposed and collected an additional penalty sum of 5 percent of the original fine for any criminal offense or any criminal ordinance violation; and

WHEREAS, the Hall County Finance Department has maintained these funds in a special revenue fund, segregating them, as required, from the County's general operating revenues; and

WHEREAS, the State has designated the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council its body to promulgate rules governing the approval of victim witness assistance programs, and having approved the programs of the Hall County Solicitor, Rape Response, Gateway House, The Children's Center for Hope and Healing, Edmondson-Telford Center for Children, Hall-Dawson Court Appointed Special Advocate here in Hall County; and

WHEREAS, the each of the aforementioned programs has petitioned the Hall County Board of Commissioners for this limited funding in FY 2014.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, the Hall County Board of Commissioners, in its process of reviewing and approving the FY 2014 Budget, establishes the following funding levels for each of the victim witness programs from the local victim witness funds held or to be collected by the County for FY 2014

Victim Witness Program	FY 2014 Funding
